

University of Texas at Austin

There are many opportunities for Texas Law students to perform law-related pro bono work in the Austin community and beyond. Some of Texas Law's pro bono projects are operated internally by the Richard & Ginni Mithoff Pro Bono Program, while others are offered in conjunction with community partners.

Current and recent pro bono opportunities available to Texas Law students include:

Asylum Project with American Gateways

Austin Entrepreneurship Legal Clinic with Texas C-Bar

Bankruptcy Project with Bankruptcy Law Section, State Bar of Texas

Certificates of Rehabilitation Project with Texas Criminal Justice Coalition

Citizenship Drive with Casa Marianella Immigration Legal Services

Client Feedback Project with Capitol Area Private Defender Service

Community Navigator Project with Workers Defense Project

Community Tax Centers with Foundation Communities

Defense Attorney Caseload Project with the Texas Fair Defense Project

Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA) Assistance with Catholic Charities of Central Texas

Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA) Clinic with Equal Justice Center

Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA) Intake with Equal Justice Center

Employment Justice Intake with Equal Justice Center

Employment Justice Outreach with Equal Justice Center

Expunction Project with the Mithoff Pro Bono Program

Family Law Self-Help Project with Travis County Law Library & Self-Help Center

Family Reunification Project with the Reentry Roundtable

German Family Law Research Project with Catholic Charities of Central Texas

Guardianship Standards Project with The Office of Senator Judith Zaffirini

Homestead Exemption and Wills Outreach Clinic with Texas Title Project

Human Rights Research Project with the United Nations Working Group on Enforced or Involuntary Disappearances

Immigration Detainee Civil Rights Project with American Gateways

Immigration Waivers Project with Catholic Charities of Central Texas

Juvenile Lifers Project with the Texas Criminal Justice Coalition

Lodging Clinic with Casa Marianella Immigration Legal Services

Mandarin Translation Project with Texas Legal Services Center

Prisoners' Civil Rights Legal Support Project with Prison Justice League

Pro Bono in January Service Trip with the Mithoff Pro Bono Program

Promotor@s Project with Workers Defense Project

Recent Graduate Pro Bono Mentorship Project with Volunteer Legal Services

Reentry Resources Project with William Wayne Justice Center for Public Interest Law

Special Immigrant Juvenile Status Project with Austin Region Justice For Our Neighbors

Texas Foster Youth Justice Project with Texas RioGrande Legal Aid

Texas Law Help Live Chat Legal Education Project with Texas Legal Services Center

Trans Name and Gender Marker Project with the Mithoff Pro Bono Program

Trial Testimony Review and Summary with the Texas Law Capital Punishment Clinic

U Visa Assistance with Catholic Charities of Central Texas

Veterans Legal Advice Clinic with Austin Bar Association

Wills Clinic with Texas RioGrande Legal Aid

Youth Court with the Educational Equity Project and Mithoff Pro Bono Program

An updated list of current pro bono projects can be found at law.utexas.edu/opportunities. Students can subscribe to the pro bono listserv in order to receive information about new project postings by contacting Sarah Sedgwick at ssedgwick@law.utexas.edu.

Students also may obtain additional information about the Mithoff Pro Bono Program and pro bono opportunities by contacting:

Andrea Marsh

Director, Richard & Ginni Mithoff Pro Bono Program

The University of Texas School of Law

727 East Dean Keeton

Austin, TX 78705

(512) 232-6170

amarsh@law.utexas.edu